Authority For Civil Cover Sheet

The JS-44 civil cover sheet and the information contained herein neither replaces nor supplements the filings and service of pleading or other papers as required by law, except as provided by local rules of court. This form, approved by the Judicial Conference of the United States in September 1974, is required for the use of the Clerk of Court for the purpose of initiating the civil docket sheet. Consequently a civil cover sheet is submitted to the Clerk of Court for each civil complaint filed. The attorney filing a case should complete the form as follows:

I.(a) Plaintiffs - Defendants. Enter names (last, first, middle initial) of plaintiff and defendant. If the plaintiff or defendant is a government agency, use only the full name or standard abbreviations. If the plaintiff or defendant is an official within a government agency, identify first the agency and then the official, giving both name and title.

(b) County of Residence. For each civil case filed, except U.S. plaintiff cases, enter the name of the county where the first listed plaintiff resides at the time of filing. In U.S. plaintiff cases, enter the name of the county in which the first listed defendant resides at the time of filing. (NOTE: In land condemnation cases, the county of residence of the "defendant" is the location of the tract of land involved).

(c) Attorneys. Enter firm name, address, telephone number, and attorney of record. If there are several attorneys, list them on an attachment, noting in this section "(see attachment)".

II. Jurisdiction. The basis of jurisdiction is set forth under Rule 8(a), F.R.C.P., which requires that jurisdictions be shown in pleadings. Place the "X" in one of the boxes. If there is more than one basis of jurisdiction, precedence is given in the order shown below.

United States plaintiff. (1) Jurisdiction is based on 28 U.S.C. 1345 and 1348. Suits by agencies and officers of the United States are included here.

United States defendant. (2) When the plaintiff is suing the United States, its officers or agencies, place an X in this box.

Federal question. (3) This refers to suits under 28 U.S.C. 1331, where jurisdiction arises under the Constitution of the United States, an amendment to the Constitution, an act of Congress or a treaty of the United States. In cases where the U.S. is a party, the U.S. plaintiff or defendant code takes precedence, and box 1 or 2 should be marked.

Diversity of citizenship. (4) This refers to suits under 28 U.S.C. 1332, where parties are citizens of different states. When Box 4 is checked, the citizenship of the different parties must be checked. (See Section III below; federal question actions take precedence over diversity cases.)

III. Residence (citizenship) of Principal Parties. This section of the JS-44 is to be completed if diversity of citizenship was indicated above. Mark this section for each principal party.

IV. Cause of Action. Report the civil statute directly related to the cause of action and give a brief description of the cause.

V. Nature of Suit. Place an "X" in the appropriate box. If the nature of suit cannot be determined, be sure the cause of action, in Section IV above, is sufficient to enable the deputy clerk or the statistical clerks in the Administrative Office to determine the nature of suit. If the cause fits more than one nature of suit, select the most definitive.

VI. Origin. Place an "X" in one of the seven boxes.

Original Proceedings. (1) Cases which originate in the United States district courts.

Removed from State Court. (2) Proceedings initiated in state courts may be removed to the district courts under Title 28 U.S.C., Section 1441. When the petition for removal is granted, check this box.

Remanded from Appellate Court. (3) Check this box for cases remanded to the district court for further action. Use the date of remand as the filing date.

Reinstated or Reopened. (4) Check this box for cases reinstated or reopened in the district court. Use the reopening date as the filing date.

Transferred from Another District. (5) For cases transferred under Title 28 U.S.C. Section 1404(a). Do not use this for within district transfers or multidistrict litigation transfers.

Multidistrict Litigation. (6) Check this box when a multidistrict case is transferred into the district under authority of Title 28 U.S.C. Section 1407. When this box is checked, do not check (5) above.

Appeal to District Judge from Magistrate Judgment. (7) Check this box for an appeal from a magistrate's decision.

VII. Requested in Complaint. Class Action. Place an "X" in this box if you are filing a class action under Rule 23, F.R.Cv.P.

Demand. In this space enter the dollar amount (in thousands of dollars) being demanded or indicate other demand such as a preliminary injunction.

Jury Demand. Check the appropriate box to indicate whether or not a jury is being demanded.

VIII. Related Cases. This section of the JS-44 is used to reference relating pending cases if any. If there are related pending cases, insert the docket numbers and the corresponding judge names for such cases.

Date and Attorney Signature. Date and sign the civil cover sheet.

The CV-71 (JS-44) Civil Cover Sheet and the information contained herein neither replace nor supplement the filing and service of pleadings or other papers as required by law except as provided by local rules of court. This form, approved by the Judicial Conference of the United States in September 1974, is required for the use of the Clerk of Court for the purpose of initiating the civil docket sheet. - (c) Attorneys. Enter firm name, address, telephone number, and attorney of record. If there are several attorneys, list them on an attachment, noting in this section ("see attachment"). Refer to Local Rules 83-2.7 and 41-6 for further information regarding change of attorney name, address, firm association, phone number, fax number or e-mail address, and dismissal of action for failure of pro se plaintiff to keep Court apprised of current address.
- II. JURISDICTION. The basis of jurisdiction is set forth under Rule 8(a), F.R.C.P., which requires that jurisdiction be shown in pleadings. Place an "X" in one of the boxes. If there is more than one basis of jurisdiction, precedence is given in the order shown below.

United States Plaintiff. (1) Jurisdiction is based on 28 U.S.C. 1345 and 1348. Suits by agencies and officers of the United States are included here.

United States Defendant. (2) When the plaintiff is suing the United States, its officers or agencies, place an "X" in this box.

Federal Question. (3) This refers to suits under 28 U.S.C. 1331 where jurisdiction arises under the Constitution of the United States, an amendment to the Constitution, and act of Congress or a treaty of the United States. In cases where the U.S. is a party, the U.S. plaintiff or defendant code take precedence and box 1 or 2 should be marked.

Diversity of Citizenship. (4) This refers to suits under 28 U.S.C. 1332 where parties are citizens of different states. When box 4 is checked, the citizenship of the different parties must be checked. (See Section III below) (Federal question actions take precedence over diversity cases.)
- III. RESIDENCE (CITIZENSHIP) OF PRINCIPAL PARTIES. This section of the CV-71 (JS-44) is to be completed if diversity of citizenship was indicated above. Mark this section for each principal party.
- IV. ORIGIN. Place an "X" in one of the seven boxes:
  - (1) Original Proceedings. Cases which originate in the United States District Courts.
  - (2) Removed from State Court. Proceedings initiated in state courts may be removed to the district courts under Title 28 U.S.C. Section 1441. When the petition for removal is granted, check this box.
  - (3) Remanded from Appellate court. Check this box for cases remanded to the district court for further action. Use the date of remand as the filing date.
  - (4) Reinstated or Reopened. Check this box for cases reinstated or reopened in the district court. Use the reopening date as the filing date.
  - (5) Transferred from Another District. For cases transferred under Title 28 U.S.C. Section 1404(a). DO NOT use this for within-district transfers or multidistrict litigation transfers. When this box is checked, DO NOT check (6) below.
  - (6) Multidistrict Litigation. Check this box when a multidistrict case is transferred into the district under authority of Title 28 U.S.C. Section 1407. When this box is checked, DO NOT check (5) above.
  - (7) Appeal to District Judge from Magistrate Judge Judgment. Check this box for an appeal from a magistrate judge's decision.
- V. REQUESTED IN COMPLAINT.

Class Action. Place an "X" in this box if you are filing a class action under Rule 23, F.R.Cv.P.

Demand. In this space enter the dollar amount (in thousands of dollars) being demanded or indicate other demand such as a preliminary injunction.

Jury Demand. Check the appropriate box to indicate whether or not a jury is being demanded.
- VI. CAUSE OF ACTION. Report the civil statute directly related to the cause of action and give a brief description of the cause of action. Do not cite jurisdictional statutes unless diversity.

Example: U.S. Civil Statute: 47 USC 553
 Brief Description: Unauthorized reception of cable service
- VII. NATURE OF SUIT. Place an "X" in the appropriate box. MARK ONE BOX ONLY. If the cause of action fits more than one nature of suit, select the one that best describes your cause of action.
- VIII(a) IDENTICAL CASES. Indicate if an identical action has previously been filed and dismissed, remanded or closed. Insert the docket number and judge's name, if applicable.
- VIII(b) RELATED CASES. This section of the CV-71 (JS-44) is used to reference related cases, if any. If there are related cases, insert the docket numbers and the corresponding judge's name for each case. Check all boxes that apply.
- IX. VENUE. This section of the CV-71 (JS-44) is used to identify the correct division in which the case will be filed. Please remember to indicate the residence of EACH plaintiff and defendant and the county or state in which each claim arose.

If the United States government or an agency thereof is a plaintiff or defendant, place an "X" in the appropriate box. Indicate the residence of other parties, if any.

In each category: for each party and claim, indicate the county, if in California. If other than California, you need only to list the state or country.
- X. Attorney or party appearing pro per must sign and date this form.

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES*I.*INTRODUCTION.

Plaintiff Edgar Aquino filed his Complaint for General Negligence and Premises Liability on or about October 5, 2007, in the Southeast District (Norwalk) of the Los Angeles County Superior Court. Following service of the Complaint upon Target, on or about November 15, 2007, Target removed the matter to Federal Court, based on diversity of citizenship. Based on Plaintiff's filing of the case in the Norwalk court, the matter was removed to the United States District Court for the Central District of California, and was assigned to this Courtroom.

Shortly thereafter, in preparation for filing its Answer, Target became aware that this case was erroneously filed in Los Angeles County, but should instead have been filed by Plaintiff in San Diego County, because the accident that injured Plaintiff occurred at a Target store located in the City of San Diego.

Upon obtaining this information, counsel for Target spoke with counsel for Plaintiff, whereupon Plaintiff's counsel acknowledged that the case was mistakenly filed in Norwalk, and that it should correctly have been filed in San Diego. Plaintiff's counsel does not object to a transfer of this matter to San Diego.

As discussed below, the interests of justice and the convenience of the witnesses, the parties and this Court dictate that this matter should be transferred to the District Court for the Southern District of California – the location to where this matter would have been removed had Plaintiff initially filed his Complaint in the San Diego County Superior Court.

II.

ALLEGATIONS OF THE COMPLAINT, AND THE FACTS OF THIS CASE.

The Complaint filed alleges that on October 6, 2005, Plaintiff was delivering “products” to a Target store “located at 8800#B Slauson Ave., #B, Pico Rivera, CA 90660” (Complaint, page 4, ¶GN-1; page 6, ¶ Prem.L-1) when he was “struck and pinned by the forklift” at said Target store (Complaint, page 4, ¶GN-2, 3; pps 6-7 5, ¶ Prem.L-1) and suffered injuries therefrom.

Based on the time deadlines for removing a case from State to Federal Court, counsel for Target was required to file its Notice of Removal based only the information contained in the Summons and Complaint. Based solely on the information contained in the Complaint, it appeared that Plaintiff filed this case in the correct court. Soon afterwards, however, it became apparent that something was amiss. First, while there is a Target store in Pico Rivera, it is at 8800 Whittier Boulevard, not 8800 Slauson Avenue. Next, while investigating this accident, no one from the Target Pico Rivera store had heard of this accident. Finally, after further investigation, Target learned that this accident actually occurred at its Target store located at 5454 Balboa Avenue in San Diego, California 92111. (See, accompanying declarations of Target counsel R. Derek Classen, and Target store team leader Cindy Fletcher.) In fact, Target had created an accident report of the incident in San Diego, and had obtained preliminary information concerning Plaintiff’s emergency medical treatment, all of which confirmed the accident took place at Target’s San Diego store.

Upon contacting Plaintiff’s counsel, counsel acknowledged that the Complaint mistakenly used Plaintiff’s home address as the address for the Target store. Plaintiff’s counsel further acknowledged that the case properly should have been filed in San Diego County. Plaintiff’s counsel is not happy about the matter being in Federal Court, but has no objection to its transfer to San Diego. Because this

1 matter cannot be resolved by stipulation of the parties, this motion to transfer is 2 necessary. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1404(a), this Court is empowered to transfer this
 3 matter to its more appropriate venue. Additionally, the facts herein demonstrate that 4 good cause exists for the transfer of this matter to the Southern District of California.

5 III.

6 THE CONVENIENCE OF THE WITNESSES, PARTIES AND THE 7 INTERESTS OF JUSTICE SHOW THAT THE MATTER BE TRANSFERRED 8 TO THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT (SAN DIEGO).

9 Even though it was actually filed in the incorrect jurisdiction, because this 10 matter has been removed from the Los Angeles County Superior Court, this matter is 11 now properly venued in the Central District. As such, a transfer of this matter from 12 this Court to the Southern District is not mandatory, and 28 U.S.C. § 1406(a) has no
 13 application. This Court does, however, have discretion under 28 U.S.C. § 1404(a) to 14 transfer this matter, “[f]or the convenience of parties, witnesses and in the interest of 15 justice . . . to any other district or division where it might have been brought.” 28
 16 U.S.C. § 1404(a).

17 The Court’s inherent discretion in this situation is interpreted broadly, in 18 order to enable the Court to consider the particular facts of each case. E&J Gallo
 19 Winery v. F&P SpA, 899 F.Supp. 465, 466 (E.D. CA 1994).

20 A. The Matter Could Have Been Brought in the Southern District.

21 First, it must be shown that the proposed transferee court is one in which the 22 action could have been commenced originally, meaning it would have had subject 23 matter jurisdiction; defendants would have been subject to personal jurisdiction; and 24 venue would have been proper. Hoffman v. Blaski, 363 U.S. 335, 343-344 (1960).
 25 Each is present in this instance: Because the accident took place in the City of San 26 Diego, the matter could (and should) have been brought in either San Diego County
 27 Superior Court or the United States District Court for the Southern District of 28

1 California, and Target would have been subject to personal jurisdiction therein
 2 (notwithstanding the diversity of citizenship issue). Thus, transfer to the Southern
 3 District would be permissible under § 1404(a).

4 B. The Convenience of the Parties and Witnesses Support Transfer.

5 Additionally, the evidence in this case indicates there are many reasons why
 6 trial of this case would be more convenient to the parties and witnesses in this 7 instance. While a plaintiff's choice of forum should be given great weight when 8 deciding whether to grant a motion to change venue (Securities Investor Protection
 9 Corp. v. Vigman, 764 F.2d 1309, 1317 (9th Cir. 1985)), here it is apparent that 10 Plaintiff mistakenly and unintentionally filed the matter in Los Angeles County
 11 because his counsel confused Plaintiff's home address with the location of the 12 accident. Because Plaintiff's "choice of forum" was unintentional, this Court should 13 give little, if any, weight to this factor.

14 Conversely, the convenience of the potential witnesses will be great. This is 15 often the most important factor affecting the court's exercise of its discretion. A.J.
 16 Industries, Inc. v. United States Dist. Ct., 503 F.2d 384, 389 (9th Cir. 1974). Here, 17 while it is still too early in this case to know definitively who all the witnesses will 18 be, this factor is nonetheless determinative.

19 First, it is apparent – and conceded by Plaintiff – that the accident happened
 20 in San Diego. Target's accident report and its further preliminary investigation have 21 identified at least five Target employee witnesses, who each reside in San Diego
 22 County, who will likely be deposed and/or testify at trial. Additionally, Plaintiff's 23 initial injuries were first diagnosed and treated in San Diego. Both the Complaint and 24 the declaration of Target store team leader Ms. Fletcher indicate that Plaintiff was 25 injured in the accident to such a degree that Plaintiff was taken by ambulance to a 26 local hospital where he underwent emergency surgery. Target's preliminary 27 investigation confirms that Plaintiff received substantial treatment for his injuries in 28

1 San Diego County. Thus, the ambulance medical team as well as the emergency
2 room medical doctors and attendants will be located in San Diego County. It would
3 undoubtedly be a great burden upon those professionals to be subject to subpoena
4 power in Los Angeles when this matter can be transferred to San Diego.

5 Also, it goes without saying that the accident site itself is in San Diego, and 6 the forklift which caused Plaintiff's injuries is still in San Diego. Any additional 7 aspects of this case or potential witnesses to the accident are likely to come from the 8 San Diego area. Accordingly, transfer of this matter to the Southern District will aid
9 the convenience of third party witnesses in this matter.

10 C. The Interests of Justice.

11 Additionally, the interests of justice support the transfer of this matter to the 12 Southern District. This a matter that, but for Plaintiff's counsel's inadvertent 13 pleading error, would have been filed initially in San Diego, therefore it is logical and 14 in the ordinary scope of judicial determination that this matter be transferred to its 15 proper venue. To the extent it is applicable, the interests of the residents of San 16 Diego County are more at issue in this matter, because this matter involves questions
17 of safety involving their businesses. Finally, because it is more logical to have this 18 matter proceed in San Diego, the interests of justice are promoted by permitting the 19 matter to go forward in its more proper venue.

20 IV.

21 CONCLUSION.

22 Because this case was initially mistakenly filed in the wrong court, because 23 the incident forming the subject matter of this case took place in San Diego County, 24 and because many of the potential and likely witnesses and evidence in this case are 25 located in San Diego County, this Court should exercise its discretion and transfer the 26 matter to the Southern District of California, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1404(a), where 27 it would now be if the matter had been initially filed in its proper forum.

CASE NO. CV07-07467FMC (JTLx)

DECLARATION OF R. DEREK CLASSEN IN SUPPORT OF TARGET'S MOTION TO DISMISS
OR TRANSFER VENUE

Complaint Filed: October 5, 2007
Trial Date: None

I, R. Derek Classen, hereby declare:

1. I am an attorney licensed to practice in California and in the United States District for the Central and Southern Districts of California, and am a partner of the law firm of Prindle, Decker & Amaro, LLP, attorneys of record for Defendant Target Stores ("Target"). The following facts are of my own knowledge, and if required, I could and would testify as follows:

2. Because Target is, for jurisdictional purposes, a corporate citizen of Minnesota, I routinely remove cases such as the present case naming Target to federal court where other jurisdictional requirements are met. At the time I was required to file for removal, all I had been given by my client was the Summons and Complaint. I assumed that the basic information in the Complaint regarding the location of the accident was correct; I had no reason to believe that such a basic fact would be so

1 completely incorrect. My initial review of the Complaint – which listed the accident
2 as having occurred in Pico Rivera – indicated that this case was correctly filed in the 3 Norwalk courthouse of the Los Angeles County Superior Court. It was only later that
4 it became apparent that Plaintiff's Complaint was inaccurate and that Plaintiff's case
5 was actually filed in the wrong court, and in the wrong County.

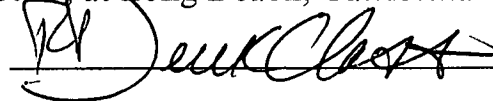

6 3. As part of the meet and confer process needed to bring this motion
7 before this Court, I discussed the situation with Plaintiff's counsel. I stated that my 8 investigation showed that the accident did not occur in Pico Rivera, but rather 9 occurred at a Target store in the City of San Diego. Plaintiff's counsel agreed that 10 this was correct. Counsel further stated that the Pico Rivera address was Plaintiff's
11 residence, and that the inclusion of this address and the subsequent filing of this case
12 at the Norwalk courthouse based on this address was incorrect and was done 13 accidentally and inadvertently. Plaintiff's counsel indicated that he agreed that the 14 matter should originally have been filed in San Diego County. While counsel was 15 amenable to stipulating to transfer venue, I did not pursue this because my research
16 on the issue indicated that the Court's decision to transfer the matter to another venue
17 would have to be made by motion, and therefore a stipulation would be ineffectual.

18 4. I have obtained the accident report from Target as well as some of 19 Plaintiff's medical records from his emergency room visit and emergency surgery.
20 Target's accident report indicates that Plaintiff, who does not work for Target, was 21 unloading pumpkins from his company's truck when he attempted to climb into the 22 cab of a forklift from the bed of his truck, and accidentally kicked some levers that 23 caused the forklift to rise and begin to crush him. According to my initial review of 24 this case, there are at least five target employees who are potential witnesses in this 25 case. Because the accident took place in San Diego, and because the vast majority of 26 the evidence and witnesses are located in San Diego, the Southern District is the more 27 proper venue for this case. Additionally, I have recently obtained a portion of 28 Plaintiff's medical records, which indicate that Plaintiff received extensive

1 emergency and hospital care in San Diego following the accident. Thus, there is
2 further basis for transferring this case to the Southern District.

3 I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that
4 the foregoing is true and correct.

5 Executed this 18th day of December, 2007, at Long Beach, California.

2 and belief.

3           4. As to Paragraph 8, Defendant denies that any injury to Plaintiff occurred in 4 the Los Angeles jurisdiction because the accident and alleged injuries occurred in San 5 Diego County.

7           6. Defendant denies Paragraph 11 in its entirety.

8           7. Defendant specifically and generally denies Plaintiff's prayer for damages
9 in its entirety as set forth in Paragraph 14.

10          8. Answering Plaintiff's First Cause of Action for General Negligence, this 11 responding Defendant admits that the accident took place on October 6, 2005, but denies 12 that the accident took place at or near a Target Store located 8800 Slauson Avenue in 13 Pico Rivera, California 90660. In fact, the alleged accident occurred at or near the 14 Balboa Target Store located at 5454 Balboa Avenue in San Diego, California 92111.
15 This responding party specifically and generally denies each and every other contention
16 set forth in Plaintiff's allegations in its First Cause of Action.

17          9. Answering Plaintiff's Second Cause of Action for Premises Liability, this 18 responding Defendant denies that the accident occurred on or about October 6, 2007 but

23 specifically and generally each and every contention set forth in Plaintiff's allegations
24 in his Second Cause of Action.

25                           FIRST AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

26   (Comparative Negligence)

27          10.       Alleges that Plaintiff's injuries, if any, were caused and contributed 28 to by Plaintiff's own negligence.

SECOND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

(Assumption of Risk)

11. Alleges that Plaintiff's injuries, if any, were caused and contributed to by Plaintiff's own assumption of risk.

THIRD AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

12. Alleges that the Complaint, and each cause of action thereof, fails to state facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action.

FOURTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

(Statute of Limitations)

13. Alleges the Complaint, and each cause of action thereof, is barred by Section 340, subdivision 3 of the California Code of Civil Procedure.

FIFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

(Fault of Others)

14. Alleges that other persons or entities, whether or not parties, each, were negligent and such negligence was a proximate cause of Plaintiff's injuries, if any, and should any judgment be awarded to Plaintiff, it must be apportioned among all such negligent persons or entities and offset against any judgment against Defendant.

SIXTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

(Mitigation of Damages)

15. That Plaintiff's injuries or damages, if any, should be diminished, reduced and/or barred for the reason that Plaintiff has failed to take any action whatsoever to mitigate her alleged injuries or damages.

NINTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

18. Alleges that Plaintiff is precluded from recovering from this answering Defendant by operation of law via collateral estoppel and/or res judicata.

TENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

19. That Defendant was not negligent in the use, maintenance or management of its property, and that the allegedly dangerous condition Plaintiff alleges existed on its premises was an "open and obvious" condition for which no warning was required. Plaintiff's injuries, if any, were solely caused by her own failure to observe this "open and obvious" condition, and to take care of her own safety.

ELEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

(Witt v. Jackson)

20. This answering Defendant alleges that Plaintiff's employer was concurrently negligent and thereby should be precluded from obtaining reimbursement of any benefits paid.

TWELFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

21. This answering Defendant alleges that Plaintiff filed this matter in the improper venue. Plaintiff contends that venue is proper because the injury to the Plaintiff occurred at Target's Pico Rivera Store located in Pico Rivera, California, which is located in the County of Los Angeles. In fact, Defendant contends that the accident occurred at Target's Balboa Store located on Balboa Avenue in San Diego, California. As such, venue is improper in Los Angeles County.
